Ditch Cave-In Victims 'Good' With Injuries

Quick Rescue Picks Pair From Trench On Sewer Project

Two men snatched from possible death in a ditch cave-in were in "good" condition today at City Hospital with various injuries suffered when nearly buried alive by tons of falling earth at the bottom of the 15-foot trench of a sewer project in West End Tuesday afternoon.

Jack Graham, 48, of 425 W. 9th St., suffered possible pelvic and leg injuries, and Harry Cunningham, 24, of Hammondsburg R. D.

Need Of Radio Sets In Fire Trucks Cited

City firemen said the emergency run Tuesday for the rescue of two men trapped in a sewer ditch served to point up the need for two-way radio sets for the fire trucks.

Firemen at the scene had to have police use their cruiser radio to reach the police station, which then had to phone the Central Fire Station for the emergency truck and to call an ambulance with a resuscitator. Had the pumper been radio equipped, firemen could have made the call direct, it was pointed out, thus saving valuable time. Only the chief's car is radio equipped.

Employed by the Sikora Brothers Excavating Co., they were at the bottom of the trench installing sections of 18-inch sewer pipe in a relocation project when the walls of the deep ditch crushed parts of the shoring and tumbled over them about 1 p. m.

Apparently there were two falls. Graham was buried to his shoulders by the first, but was able to raise his arms; Cunningham was not covered as deeply and managed to step to the top of a sewer pipe before the second fall. But this buried Graham at least two feet deeper, covering his head. Cunningham now was covered above his armpits.

His shouts brought five fellow workers who began digging, and Lester Iceman, foreman for the Ohio Valley Gas Co., and his assistant, James Newman Jr. The latter two were at the scene to

Ike Reports Tonight On Summit Fall

Effects On Policies Of U.S., Other Free Nations To Be Told

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower reports to the American people tonight on the collapse of the summit conference and its effect on the policies of this and other free world nations.

He speaks out in the midst of political, diplomatic and legislative repercussions over the use of a U.S. spy plane brought down in the Soviet Union just before the summit blowup.

The Kremlin was urged by the White House to let the Soviet people listen to broadcasts on the President's 30-minute talk. James C. Hagerty, making the appeal through American newsmen, said "the Russian people, as well as the free people of the world have a right to hear it."

The President's address, from the White House at 8 p. m. EDT will be carried live by CBS and ABC TV networks, and all major radio networks. It will be rebroadcast at 10 p. m. by NBC-TV.

The Voice of America arranged to broadcast the presidential message overseas in English and 38 other languages, including Russian.

The Senate Foreign Relations Committee called Secretary of State Christian A. Herter for closed-door testimony Friday, starting a major inquiry into the downing of the U2 spy plane and the chain of events which followed it.

The hearings are to continue into next week, with testimony by Director Allen W. Dulles of the Central Intelligence Agency, Secretary of Defense Thomas S. Gates Jr., Gen. Nathan Twining, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and officials of the National Aeronautics and Space Agency.

Two other Senate probes were planned on a lesser scale—one by a special committee which keeps regular check on the Central Intelligence Agency and the other by a subcommittee studying government policy machinery.

Hawaiian City Buries Tidal Wave Victims

HONOLULU (AP) — Hilo began burying its tidal wave dead today as rescue workers continued searching debris along the city's waterfront.

The toll: 38 dead, 21 missing and 53 injured in the disaster. Hawaii's worst in 14 years.

The shattered city's 26,000 residents are threatened now by other dangers. They have started spraying to combat disease. People have been asked to drink only boiled water. There is a massive sanitation problem.

The havoc brought by the four waves that struck early Monday morning sent unofficial damage estimates soaring to 60 million dollars. One hundred business firms were destroyed or damaged.

The third of the waves, the most destructive, reached a height of 22 feet, Dr. Jerry Eaton, seismologist, said Tuesday.

Man Escapes As Car Upsets

Brake Failure Cited After Park Mishap

A 21-year-old motorist backed his car to allow an oncoming auto to pass on a narrow section of a Thompson Park road Tuesday night, but his brakes failed and the "Good Samaritan's" auto overturned down an 8-foot embankment, halting with its wheels in the air.

Charles R. Burke Jr. of Lee Street escaped unhurt in the mishap. He climbed out a window of his battered auto and had it towed to his home.

Policemen said the mishap occurred at 8:05 on a private park road approximately 50 yards southwest of the lower pavilion. Officers listed the Burke car as a total loss, but the driver said he hopes to have it repaired. The left front fender and door were damaged and the roof was caved in, officers said.

Burke told Patrolman Orlin Smith, who investigated, that he had halted his car and was backing to allow another car to proceed in the opposite direction. But Burke's brakes failed, causing the car to roll into the ravine, he said.

It was the only traffic mishap reported overnight in East Liverpool.

The Ohio Supreme Court at Columbus has unanimously ruled in favor of Prosecutor G. William Brokaw in a technical appeal filed in a reversal of the conviction of Ira Cunningham, ex-city officer, and Jerry Raimond, one-time special officer, for burglary.

The 7th District Court of Appeals in August 1959 threw out the conviction of the pair in 1958 for a burglary of the Burbick Hardware Co. store on grounds the case had not been prosecuted within the statutory period of 3 court terms.

The case will now be remanded to the Appellate Court for arguments on the merits of the case.

On Spy Plane Incident

Western Opposition In UN Dooms Reds' Charge Against U.S.

Aimed To Detect Enemy Missiles

U.S. Experimental 'Spy' Satellite Orbiting Earth

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP)

—An experimental Midas "spy" satellite today whirled about the earth every 94.34 minutes, ready to test its missile detection equipment on giant flares and friendly rockets.

Midas, weighing 2½ tons, will determine the feasibility of using a series of such satellites to patrol the earth for enemy missiles. These orbiting space stations will use infra-red sensing devices to detect the heat trail of a hostile missile the instant it is fired.

The alarm would be radioed to the United States, which then would have about 30 minutes to activate defense and retaliatory measures.

The Midas test vehicle Tuesday was launched into a near-circular orbit from this missile base. Air Force officials reported its path through space ranged from an apogee of 322 miles to a perigee of 292.1 miles. They said its radio and sensors were functioning perfectly and that it programmed as planned so its instrument-laden nose always is pointed at the earth.

The mammoth satellite, 22 feet long and 5 feet in diameter, probably will test its sensing equipment for the first time on huge sodium flares set to ignite at Edwards Air Force Base, Calif. The first flare will be fired within a few days, at a time when the satellite passes overhead.

Midas also will try to pick up rocket launches at Cape Canaveral and Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif., during its expected useful life of three to four weeks.

It probably will remain in orbit about three years.

The satellite is following a course that covers all territory 28 degrees north and south of the equator. It does not pass over the Soviet Union.

However, by the end of the year, an advanced Midas and the first Samos reconnaissance satellite are expected to be spinning in polar orbits that will take them over the Soviet Union.

By 1962, networks of six or eight of these "spies in the sky" are slated to provide complete and constant scanning of the earth's entire surface. Samos will photograph troop installations and movements, war plants, air fields and missile bases.

Diplomats waited to see if the two neutral nations on the council — Ceylon and Tunisia — would link up with the Western majority or would merely abstain on the vote expected Thursday.

Both Ceylon and Tunisia were to speak this afternoon along with U.S.-aligned Ecuador in the third session of the council debate on the Soviet charges against the United States.

Even before the council began debate, diplomats and observers at the U.N. had been certain the Soviet resolution would not get the seven votes necessary for adoption. Tuesday's session of the debate bore this out.

Only Communist Poland and the Soviet Union were committed to vote for the proposal. Argentina and Nationalist China said they would vote no. France said she could not give her assent to the resolution. Britain and Italy did not announce their voting positions, but they were known to be planning to cast negative votes.

The resolution was prompted by the downing of an American U2 photo-reconnaissance plane May 1 near Sverdlovsk, 1,400 miles inside the Soviet Union, and subsequent information from Washington that the United States had been making such spy flights over Soviet territory for four years.

The Soviets called on the council to condemn "incursions by United States aircraft into the territory of other states" and to ask the U.S. government to prevent their recurrence.

In the debate Tuesday Jerzy Michalowski of Poland said U.S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter, in defending the U2 flight, had enunciated a "Herter doctrine" that the United States had the right to send spy planes over the Soviet Union for security reasons.

He said the 1928 Havana and 1944 Chicago aviation conventions, both ratified by the United States, banned unauthorized flights over foreign countries but that Herter sought "to replace international law by the law of the jungle."

Refunds To Gas Users Will Be $7 Or More

Customers of Manufacturers Light & Heat Co. in the Northern Panhandle who use gas for heating are going to get refunds of $7 upward.

The figure was given by C. M. Taylor, district manager, at Wheeling, who explained what the recent Public Service Commission decision would mean. The PSC allowed only $1,582,000 of the $2,078,000 annual rate increase the company asked for.

Refunds are being made because the full increase was put into effect tentatively while the PSC considered the case.

Taylor said residential customers who do not heat with gas will get back an average of about 50 cents each.

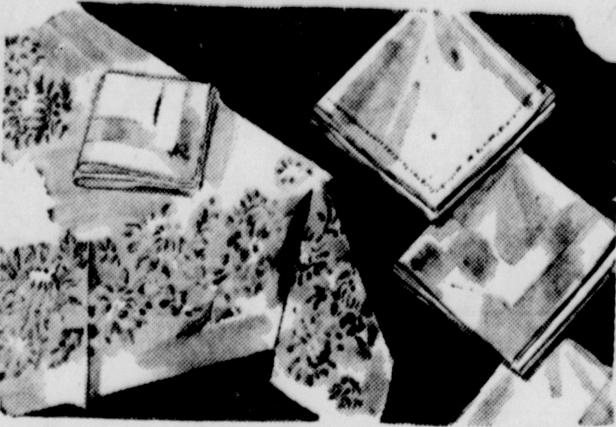

Adenauer In Italy

BONN, Germany (AP) — Chancellor Konrad Adenauer flew to Italy today for a vacation on Lake Como with this advice to West German newsmen: "Occupy your selves now with the American election. They are going to be very interesting." The 84-year-old head of the West German government did not explain his remark.

Cave-In Pair's Listed 'Good'

check on any gas lines uncovered by the excavating machinery.

Iceman from his service truck radioed an alert to the company's warehouse office, where two dispatchers called police, firemen and an ambulance.

Although first reports of the cave-in were confused, the city mobilized all its forces quickly.

Firemen, police, street department crews and an ambulance rushed to the spot. Mayor Bert H. Goodhalter and Safety - Service Director Lee Copenhafer arrived soon afterward.

Police said the first call to the fire department reported "a truck on fire on Claiborne St." while someone else telephoned the police department with a report of "a fight." The confusion was straightened out quickly, however.

Assistant Fire Chief James Pelly arrived with a pumper truck and three men, believing it was a fire. He immediately had police in a nearby cruiser radio headquarters to advise firemen to bring the emergency truck with a resuscitator, and to call another ambulance equipped with the artificial breathing device.

Neither resuscitator was needed, however, as both men remained conscious throughout their rescue.

Although they worked in cramped quarters and had to guard against the possibility of another cave-in, the rescuers had both men out of the ditch and on their way to the hospital within a half hour.

Cunningham, first to be freed, was lifted out of the deep excavation on a folding stretcher about 1:20. Ten minutes later, Graham had been rescued. He was lifted bodily out of the deep trench by his rescuers and then placed on a stretcher.

Graham was placed on a stretcher and covered with a blanket to wait a few moments for the arrival of another ambulance. Police were just on the point of placing him in a cruiser for the trip to the hospital when the second ambulance arrived. Graham was rescued before the ambulance which had stood by at the scene returned from its trip to the hospital with Cunningham.

The former policeman, unrecognizable under a heavy layer of grime that covered his head and face, took a drink of water and then talked with the mayor for a moment before he was placed in the ambulance.

"I'm all right," he assured the mayor.

While the rescue effort was under way, crowds lined both sides of the ditch, bending cautiously at the edge of the excavation to peer below.

There was shoring just at the point where the rescuers dug. Another employee of the sewer contractor said it had been in place before the earth collapsed.

Sikora Brothers have been working since late last year on the sewer relocation. The project began near the sewage treatment plant at the rear of Westgate School. The relocated sewer runs diagonally from that point across the W. 9th St. "super-road" stretch at the foot of Lisbon St., then on the north bank of Carpenters Run to W. 9th St.

It extends along W. 9th St. to Claiborne St., where it makes a right-angle turn, following Claiborne St. north, roughly parallel with Dresden Ave. The present contract is the first phase of the sewer relocation. It will end at a point about opposite the old stone quarry on the Pleasant Heights bluff overlooking California Hollow.

It was the second mishap to plague the contractor. Last week, Sikora Brothers crews broke a gas line on Claiborne St., leaving 13 families without service for several days. Because of the strike against the Ohio Valley Gas, pickets prevented repair of the line. The gas company obtained a restraining order in Common Pleas Court Friday afternoon which permitted the line to be repaired.

Claiborne St., roughly parallel with Dresden Ave., intersects with W. 9th St. at right angles about a block west of Dresden Ave. The point at which the cave-in occurred is a few hundred feet north of Moore St.

Contractor Launches Project On Route 170

Work has started on resurfacing portions of Route 170 for an area of 5.8 miles northward from the intersection with Route 30.

William McKenna, Ohio Highway Department Division 11 deputy director, reported at New Philadelphia.

Kelly & Meyer Co. of Youngstown is the contractor for the $62,311 project, which includes application of a bituminous tack coat to the present pavement, followed by two courses of asphaltic concrete material.

Traffic will be maintained during the work.

2 Killed, 1 Injured

Presidential-Year Congress

If anyone has doubts about what Congress devotes its attention to in a presidential election year, he can clear them up by taking a look at the schedule for this week.

With the target date for pre-convention adjournment only seven weeks away, legislative efforts will be concentrated on a series of bills fondly viewed by Democrats as prime campaign material. Getting top priority are items like school aid, minimum wage increase, medical care for the aged and housing.

Also on the bill was the futile attempt to pass the depressed areas measure over the President's veto. It provided a tangible clue, if any is needed, to the Democratic strategy on Capitol Hill.

THE PRESIDENT is not opposed to aid for depressed areas. He has, in fact, submitted a bill of his own to provide it. But it was by-passed in favor of a measure so broad and expensive that Boom Town could qualify for federal money.

Naturally, Mr. Eisenhower vetoed it, thereby setting himself and his party up like sitting ducks for charges from the opposition that Republicans are against helping people in need. This is the unfortunate decision that must be made in such a situation by the man who bears the responsibility for trying to keep the federal budget within some kind of limit.

The same strategy can be applied, and almost certainly will be, to any of the other priority matters.

There is, after all, little to be gained for the Democrats, who want to add the White House to their political orbit, in helping to put through reasonable programs that would serve to convince the electorate that things are being run pretty well in present executive hands.

ALL OF THE priority measures deal with problems that need solving, and the Republican administration recognizes them as such. But the pressure of a major political campaign does not often bring wise solution to problems, and the man in the seat of responsibility often has to resign himself to the unpleasant task of choosing no solution at all over an unwise solution.

No presidential-year Congress is ever noted for its bold, forward steps toward achieving a better national good. A Congress controlled by the party opposite to the chief executive's is even less apt to take that kind of action.

The important thing, it seems, is not to provide the country with realistic solutions to its more difficult problems, but to provide the party with the easiest campaign slogan.

Russians Still Talking In U.N.

A great many people are saying a number of things these last few days that won't wash well in the next few months.

This is one of the worst results of the kind of disappointment sustained when the Paris summit collapsed. Bitter disappointment leads to bitter phraseology.

But it is not proper to remember while some Americans are all for rushing into irreconcilability and others are equally hot for rushing into reconcilability that the United Nations is still doing business in New York City and the Russians are still talking there?

They happen to be talking at the moment about the U2 spy plane, which is a dead issue. It is of greater importance that the hidden subject of the U.N. Security Council talks is the future of aerial reconnaissance. High-flying planes are obsolete. The future vehicle for reconnaissance from the air will be satellites bearing cameras. There will be ticklish principles to be thrashed out before the United States and the Soviet Union usher in the era of candid photography from several hundred miles up.

Plea For Uplifting Inquiries

The nearest the United States federal government can come to the parliamentary practice of question-and-answer periods is the congressional committee inquiry.

Thus, while Britain's Prime Minister Macmillan and France's President De Gaulle can report personally to their legislative bodies on deeds or misdeeds at the Paris Summit, President Eisenhower must remain aloof at the White House while two Senate committees wade into investigations of the relationship between present foreign policy and the summit's collapse.

All theoretical things remaining equal, the Capitol Hill inquiries would be a good thing. As Republican Sen. Javits says, it is perfectly proper for the legislative branch to try to review all the factors involved when a major event concerning national policy occurs.

AND THERE IS encouraging evidence that the inquiries may be governed by a bipartisan spirit.

Sen. Johnson, Democratic leader of the upper chamber, has emphasized his support for the President's position in Paris and his distaste for any effort to split the nation's unity against the onslaughts of Nikita Khrushchev.

Sen. Jackson, Democratic chairman of one of the investigating committees, says he

The U.N. Security Council is doing the job the U.N. does best. Dag Hammarskjold, U.N. secretary-general, made a statement about this when he commented on the failure of the summit meeting.

He mistrusts summit meetings—always has. He hopes in the future that big nations and little ones will use the potentialities offered by the U.N. instead of risking another setback like the Paris Summit.

"The organization provides the framework for public diplomacy and for conference diplomacy on any level which governments may desire." But it does so as part of a regular procedure, without the building up of both expectations and problems in the way which it is difficult to avoid in other approaches. . . ."

In the U.N. Security Council this week, the same subject that shattered the Paris summit is being discussed with no imminent possibility of disaster or disappointment. The Russians are still talking in the U.N., and more and more that is beginning to look like the best of all ways to avert military showdowns—to battle with words instead of missiles.

WHILE THE SOVIETS are pushing the case of the U2, the United States report to the Commission on Narcotic Drugs states bluntly that at least 700 Soviet-Chinese spies infiltrated the U.S.-protected Republic of Korea.

Nor is our Narcotics Bureau being cloak-and-daggerish. It lists the names of the North Korean and Chinese espionage leaders—who had enough manpower to ring our key military bases there.

At least 280 of these Communist spies carried heroin on them to finance and bribe their way. Since this report has never been published elsewhere, here, word for word, is its exact charge: ". . . starting with 1955 a total of 700 Communist agents dispatched from North Korea have been arrested."

"An astonishing fact is disclosed that 40 per cent of these 700 agents had narcotics in their possession for the purpose of Fifth Column operations fund. The total quantity they carried is about 70,000— the black market price in this country."

The report lists the names of agents and the amount of crippling narcotics seized on each.

The man described as the "top spy leader" was Myung San Yang. He carried 12 kilos of morphine. Compare this with the few gold coins carried by our pilot, Francis Powers.

Yet our U.N. delegation simply put the report in the record and it went the way of all U.N. documents—right into limbo.

OUR AGENTS, working with their colleagues on the Commission on Narcotic Drugs, headquartered in Geneva, traced the origin of the hundreds of millions of dollars of such politicalized opium. It comes from Szechwan and Yunnan provinces in the Chinese Socialist motherland.

The narcotics are shipped by the ton, not the half-pound. Much of it is in bricks stamped with the symbol "999."

Much of it flows into our big cities via San Francisco and names and units are listed in Anslinger's startling report.

ACTORS STRIKE is threatened in Gotham. This can mean closed theaters. What theater-goer is going to stand for a situation where he can't get a seat from which a view of stage is possible? Ill-Advised Criticism

By David Lawrence

Summit May Put Democrats On Defensive

Many of the Democrats in Congress, as well as the Democratic Advisory Council, are trying to make a campaign issue out of the charge that President Eisenhower gave Soviet Premier Khrushchev the "opportunity" to blow up the summit conference. But the issue may boomerang against them.

David Lawrence

For, as the "New York Times" pointed out in its editorial on Monday, Mr. Khrushchev at Paris "used the U2 incident as a pretext" and admitted in his Berlin speech a few days later that his primary reason was "the firm Western stand on Germany and Berlin indicated in what he termed the 'sharply and arrogantly provocative' speeches of Secretary Herter, Under Secretary Dillon and Vice President Nixon."

On the same page appeared also a Paris dispatch from C. L. Sulzberger, the eminent commentator on world affairs, who writes that "Moscow has never objected to unmanned reconnaissance by our Tiros-1 photographic satellite" and that, as General De Gaulle tried to argue with the Soviet Premier, "the new Soviet 'space ship' was crossing France 18 times a day" even while Khrushchev was clamoring in Paris about the U2 affair.

Mr. Sulzberger reveals also that Russia has known for four years about the U2 flights and that the Soviets "knew at least since June 1959 that in West Germany we had put together, from U2 pictures, a topographic map of Russia."

THE IMPLICATION of the Democratic Advisory Council's statement that, if the plane episode hadn't occurred, all would have been sweetness and light at the Paris summit conference is hard to believe.

Even more baffling is the reasoning of Adlai Stevenson, who, in his Chicago political speech the other day, said that, "when Mr. Khrushchev gave the President an opportunity to show the world that he was not responsible for ordering the flight, the President proudly asserted that he was responsible."

The record of what the President actually said does not bear out any charge that Mr. Eisenhower said he was responsible for ordering this particular flight.

What the President did say was that he was responsible for the general policy to "gather, in every feasible way, the information required to protect the United States and the free world against surprise attacks." This included the U2 reconnaissance flights, authorized four years ago.

Little attention, moreover, has been paid to the text of the message sent by the President in the last few days to the heads of governments in various allied countries. Referring to the plane incident, he wrote:

"I need not assure you that this activity was not intentionally provocative and certainly not aggressive. It constituted one phase of an intelligence system made necessary by the nature of our political system."

MR. EISENHOWER preferred to tell the truth to the world. For this he is being pilloried and, instead of rallying behind their government, many of the Democrats, including the advisory council, are encouraging Mr. Khrushchev to believe that the United States is divided and that the President is divided and that the conduct of foreign relations is specifically delegated by the Constitution, does not speak today for the government.

It could turn out that the abortive attempts to play politics with the summit conference fiasco and to blame Mr. Eisenhower for something Mr. Khrushchev did, will put the Democrats on the defensive when they get on the stump. Patriotic feeling in America runs deeper than political partisanship.

Letter To The Editor

May I add my comments to those of Mr. Frank F. Miller (May 16, 1960) and Robert D. Saling (May 18, 1960).

I do not know either of these gentlemen personally, but I feel that Mr. Saling would do well to follow his own advise and "read up". His attempt to answer Mr. Miller's letter sounds like he has swallowed whole some of the assinine editorials which you have printed many times in the past comparing the U. S. government to big business and advocating that it be operated like a big business.

You know and he should know that no government can be run like a business, big or little.

Mr. Saling's hypothetical grass cutter from across the river is a case in point. He will mow my lawn for $3, but I have already given him money to buy his lawn mower, pay his rent and insurance and feed and clothe his family; also, when he gets my $3, it will be all gravy while the "ellow in Liverpool", who wants $5, to cut my grass, has already paid for his own lawn mower, is paying his own rent, feeding his own family and at the same time chiping in to help feed the man across the river. Yet, when he gets my $5, he'll have to give up part of that to help support the man across the river or some other foreigner. No wonder he has to get more money for mowing my lawn.

That's where Mr. Miller's suggestion, "Buy Union", comes in. If that man across the river were earning union wages, he could pay his own way in the world without begging from his customers. Union wages would also take care of those so-called "big wheels" who own the foreign plants; if they had to pay union wages in these plants, I do not think that they would be so anxious to operate them.

As for reading up and not accepting things at their face value, Mr. Saling may not accept his pay check at its face value, but, I'm afraid, when he goes to cash it, the banker, no matter how well he is, will insist on accepting it.

sary for defense against surprise attacks on the part of a nation which boasts of its capability to bury us all, and one which stubbornly maintains the most rigid secrecy in all its activities.

"At the least, this incident, while regrettable in the extreme, could not by any stretch of the imagination be of such magnitude as to justify the polemics and the abuse which Mr. Khrushchev saw fit to heap upon the United States. By so distorting and exaggerating this end, for the time being, to any hopes of progress."

NOTWITHSTANDING the published words of the President of the United States in his message to our allies, the Democratic Advisory Council said three days later that "the integrity of the word of the United States has been put into doubt," and that "the shortcomings" of the administration "tend to weaken the confidence of our allies not only in our strength but also in the wisdom and competence of our government."

The Democratic Advisory Council statement has been endorsed by Adlai Stevenson, former President Truman and Senators Symington and Kennedy.

But House Speaker Sam Rayburn and the Democratic majority leader of the Senate, Lyndon Johnson, have risen above partisanship to stand by the President.

They concur in the idea of a formal inquiry to get all the facts but they are not blaming their own government at a critical time in the conduct of our foreign relations.

A full discussion will, of course, inform the American people on matters they may not have noted deeply before.

Thus, when Adlai Stevenson says Khrushchev gave Mr. Eisenhower an "out" be affording him a chance to say the flight of Francis Powers was "unauthorized," what would the same Democrats have said about Mr. Eisenhower when a congressional inquiry subsequently revealed that he had actually given a general authorization for such flights four years earlier?

Wouldn't the Democrats have had some basis then for crying out that the President had not told the truth and that "the integrity of the word of the United States has been put into doubt"?

MR. EISENHOWER preferred to tell the truth to the world. For this he is being pilloried and, instead of rallying behind their government, many of the Democrats, including the advisory council, are encouraging Mr. Khrushchev to believe that the United States is divided and that the President is divided and that the conduct of foreign relations is specifically delegated by the Constitution, does not speak today for the government.

India's food problems may be improved by a $17 mechanical noisemaker which sounds like a howitzer.

Agricultural engineer V. K. Murthy, who developed the machine, said that for four annas (five cents) a day, a farmer could protect a five-acre field.

Although the machine was designed to scare hungry birds, Murthy said it was equally adept at scattering wild elephants, jackals, snails and flying foxes.

The apparatus is slightly machine gun shaped. It has a cylindrical base and a horizontal barrel raised a foot off the ground.

Judge Chertoff said he was approached by McFarland's minister and others to review the case because of hardship on the defendant's family.

Kiwianians Hear Post Commander

"Memorial Day is a day set aside not only for the dead but also for the living," William Martin, commander of Chester American Legion Post 121, declared at a meeting of the council Tuesday night at the City Hall.

Martin said the day is a tribute not only to the war dead, but to the disabled veterans of past wars. "We should make an effort to aid these disabled men, and spend more time with them to make their lives more pleasant."

He listed a number of projects sponsored by veterans' organizations for these men. "Disabled veterans did not give their lives, but offered them, and should be remembered on this day," he said in conclusion.

Russell Davis reported he is attempting to make arrangements for sponsoring a donkey baseball game during the summer. Alvin (Pete) Arner, president, was in charge.

Beaver Lets Contract For Repair Of Bridges

BEAVER — Beaver County commissioners Tuesday awarded a contract for repairing and patching several bridges and another for painting a bridge.

The H. R. Allen Co. of Beaver, with a low bid of $2,405, was hired to repair and patch the Ambridge-Alaquippa Bridge, the Fallston Bridge and the one at 10th St. Beaver Falls.

A low bid of $2,400 won a contract for the A. & P. Painting Co. of Beaver Falls to scrape and paint the Frye Bridge over McKinley Run in Rochester Township.

Mr. Terry H. O'Donnell of Beaver accompanied the Boys' Choir during Mass.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white embroidered tulle featuring a full skirt and five-tiered embroidered ruffles at the back, billowing into a chapel train. The bodice, with Basque waistline, was highlighted by an off-shoulder scalloped neckline and short, shirred sleeves reached by long, embroidered gauntlets.

A four-tiered silk veil of sheer illusion was gathered from a queen's crown of rhinestones and seed pearls. Her jewelry, a cultured pearl necklace and earring set, was a gift of her confirmation sponsor, Miss Mary Pat Doyle, of Ohio View.

She carried a white bible, a gift of her baptism sponsor, Mrs. Andrew Toncic, of Midland. It was covered with ruffled white lace and topped with a single, large mum centered among smaller white mums and orange delight rosebuds. Green olive leaves and sprays of white stephanotis accented the blossoms. All the familiar traditions were observed.

Miss Ann Tepic of Pittsburgh, formerly of Midland, served as maid of honor. She was gowned in a bouffant, full-length frock of nylon sheer over yellow taffeta. The maize color blended into burnt orange to the hemline. The bodice was fashioned with a scoop, collared neckline extending into a deep V-back ending with two self-material rosettes on the gathering of Basque waistline.

Her headpiece was a burnt orange Dior bow and matching short veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of white mums accented with orange delight rosebuds, white status and olive leaves. A wide, white satin bow, ending in streamers, was on the center.

Miss Helen Holava of Fairview, Helen Silva of Midland, Phyllis Galdony of Freedom, the bridegroom's niece, and Helen Disdore of Midland were bridesmaids. Their gowns and headpieces, patterned identically to those of the maid of honor, were of the same colors. They were set apart by their bouquets of full orange delight roses interspersed with white status and olive satin leaves. The blossoms of the cake. A miniature bridal party was at each side of the cake base. A memory candle on a white ruffled base stood at one side matched by a bouquet of white mums on the other side.

Mrs. Daisy Sobat of Midland was hostess at the dinner and reception which followed for 500 guests. Mrs. Nick Tepavich, Mrs. Sam Kosanovich, Mrs. Mary Gornak, Mrs. Carolyn Kolajac and Mrs. John Tucker, all of Midland, prepared dinner. Mrs. Jack Lutton, Mrs. Rudy Vlasic and Mrs. Walter Velinoff, also of Midland, and Mrs. Paul Chmara of Industry, served.

Following a honeymoon in the Pocono Mountains, the newlyweds will reside in a newly-furnished apartment in Freedom.

The bride is a graduate of Midland High School and the A&H Beauty School in East Liverpool. She is employed as cosmetologist with Gates Beauty Salon in Beaver Falls.

Her husband was graduated from Freedom High School, served two years in the Army and is employed by the National Supply Co. in Ambridge.

Fund Drive' Held For New Sign On Honor Roll Board

Thanks to a spontaneous fund solicitation made this morning, a new sign will be placed on the World War II Honor Roll Board at City Hall, listing the 17 organizations which comprised the Joint Farewell Association.

The weathered sign listing the organizations was the only dull spot remaining after the wooden honor roll board had been given a new coat of paint in preparation for the holiday observance.

R. D. Perrin, building custodian, and Fred Kane, city electrician, found $12 would be required to have a new sign painted, so they decided upon a "fund drive" to make it possible.

The money was collected within less than a half hour. Water Works Clerk Frank K. Robinson, who was secretary of the Farewell Association, gave $5. Another $5 came from the Chamber of Commerce. To round out the $12, contributions of $1 were given by Safety-Service Director Lee Coppenhaver and James V. Flasco, president of the Democrat Club, who happened into City Hall just as Kane was winding up his "fund drive."

The Farewell Association erected the Honor Roll Board, which lists the names of all East Liverpool area men and women who served in World War II. It also staged a farewell for each departing draft contingent.

Chester Serviceman's Traffic Case Dropped

A change of driving without a city driver's license filed early this month against Robert H. Graham, 18, of 562 Louisiana Ave., Chester, has been dismissed, Chester City Solicitor William Conklin reported today.

Conklin explained the youth is in the Army and a state law provides that a serviceman can operate a vehicle on a previous license.

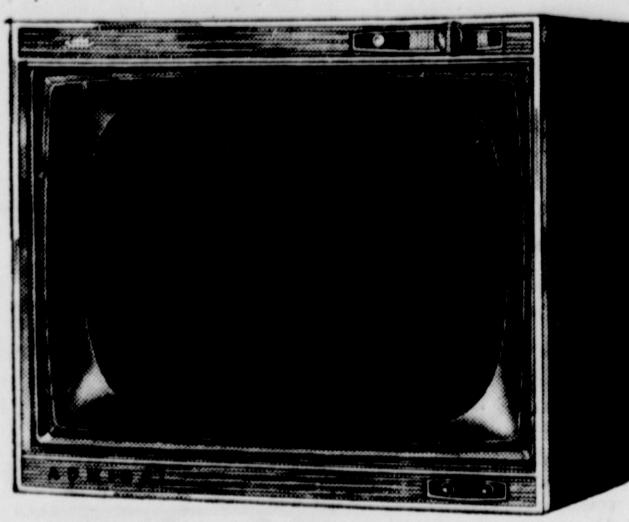

Graham was cited after his auto struck a parked car on 3rd St., knocking it into a third. He has a 1958-59 license, Conklin said, and the city regulations cannot conflict with state law.

The state law provides that a serviceman can operate on a previous license until he receives an honorable discharge or until six months after. Graham is visiting at home before leaving for an overseas assignment.

Now Over Majority Needed

Tennessee, Florida Join Nixon-For-President Drive

By D. HAROLD OLIVER

WASHINGTON (AP) — Tennessee and Florida Republican delegates joined the Nixon for president parade Tuesday, pushing the vice president well beyond the 666 majority needed for the GOP presidential nomination.

Tennessee's 28 delegates were instructed for Nixon at a state party convention. Florida's 26 delegates were captured without challenge in a primary.

The unofficial delegate standings, based on primary and state convention actions, plus Associated Press polls of uncommitted delegates, today showed:

Vice President Richard M. Nixon 696, Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona 29 (Ariz. 14, Idaho 2, S.C. 13), Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York 1 (Ark.), uncommitted 124.

The 840 GOP delegates so far named represent nearly two-thirds of the total national convention roster of 1,331. A majority is 666.

Delegate picking today was confined to Illinois where a state convention will round out a Democratic National Convention delegation with 89 votes by naming delegates at large. District delegates were elected in an April 12 primary.

Delaware names Democratic delegates Thursday. Alabama Republicans and Iowa and Washington Democrats complete delegations on Saturday.

Florida Democrats added a favorite son Tuesday to the growing list of favorites and uncommitted delegations which will hold the balance of power in the Democratic National Convention.

It gave its 29-vote delegation to Sen. George Smathers without opposition in primary voting.

This left the unofficial score of Democratic delegate votes as:

Sen. John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts 330½, Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas 111, Sen. Stuart Symington of Missouri 60, Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey of Minnesota 51½, Adlai E. Stevenson 16, others 146½, uncommitted 272½—total 982 out of a national convention vote of 1,521. It will take 761 to nominate for the Democrats.

For Memorial Rites

Col. Kimpton To Speak In Wellsville Ceremony

Col. Theodore R. Kimpton, commanding officer of the 20th Army Corps, headquarters at Ft. Hayes, Columbus, will be guest speaker at Wellsville's Memorial Day rites Monday morning.

The observance will begin with a parade at 8:45 a.m. Col. Kimpton will speak at the Springhill Cemetery service.

He is a veteran of almost 30 years military service following graduation from the U.S. Military Academy at West Point in 1930. A native of Chicago, he served as an infantry battalion commander with the 5th Army in Italy during World War II.

His awards and decorations include the Purple Heart with Oak Leaf cluster, Bronze Star medal, Combat Infantryman badge, commendation ribbon with metal pendant and the Italian Merit di Guerra.

As the 20th Corps chief, Col. Kimpton directs Army Reserve and Reserve Officer Training Corps activities in the 3-state corps area of Ohio, Kentucky and West Virginia.

He also establishes and maintains liaison with officials, civic leaders, National Guard commanders, university officials, quasi-military organizations and other groups affiliated with or interested in the ROTC and Army Reserve programs.

Wellsville's Memorial Council is in charge of arrangements. It includes representatives from Veterans of Foreign Wars Posts 5647 and 9285 and American Legion Post 70.

The fire and rescue teams will clean trucks Saturday afternoon at 1 at the fire station.

Members of all units will report Monday afternoon at 1 at the Loblaw market on Bradshaw Ave. for the parade.

Two members of each team will go to an event at Urichsville Friday, leaving at 6:15. The units will also compete in a Liverpool West firemen's parade next Wednesday night, reporting at the Glenmoor fire station at 7.

Herman Heiney reported on the fire training class at Wellsville. He said more fire team members are needed, and anyone interested in joining may contact him.

The next meeting will be June 7.

CD Groups Plan Memorial Role

Plans for participation in the city's Memorial Day parade Monday were outlined at a meeting of the 2nd and 5th Platoons of the 31st Mobile Support Group Tuesday night at the Glennmoor fire station. About 30 attended.

Investigation Urged

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — Persons interested in buying New Mexico oil and gas leases should do so only after investigating any offer, says the Ohio Division of Securities. Division Chief W. Patrick Green said swindlers make legitimate purchases of oil and gas leases from the State of New Mexico, but then resell the leases to "sucker lists" in blocks of 40 acres at up to $40.

The units will continue to Spring Hill Cemetery. Seats will be provided for the audience. City preachers will offer prayers at the flag ceremonies and at the cemetery.

The firing squad of Post 9285 will salute the dead at the cemetery.

The auxiliary will serve food. A matinee will be held Monday from 2 to 5 and the carnival will open each evening from 7 to 11.

Sections of Denmore and Sherwood Aves. will have to be closed because of the size of the event. Advance sale tickets will be available at the station or from the men until Saturday night.

Senate Sustains President's Veto On Depressed Areas Bill

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some Democrats claimed a new election campaign issue today in the 251-million-dollar economic measure. President Eisenhower's successful veto of a bill to aid depressed areas. The vote was 45 to override and 39 against. The 45 votes were 11 shy of the two-thirds majority needed to pass a bill over a veto. Forty Democrats and five Republicans voted to override. Twenty-five Republicans and 14 Democrats supported Eisenhower. The Democrats included 12 Southern senators and Sens. Frank J. Lausche of Ohio and J. Allen Frear Jr. of Delaware.

Sen. Paul Douglas (D-Ill.) said Democrats will make an election issue of the bill's defeat as did Sen. Joseph S. Clark (D-Pa.).

All three senatorial contenders for the Democratic presidential nomination—Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas, John F. Kennedy of Massachusetts and Stuart Symington of Missouri—voted to override.

Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois, the Republican leader, questioned whether the Democrats sincerely wanted a bill passed.

The President said the measure was too broad and wasteful, and sent it back with the admonition that there is time yet to work out an acceptable substitute. The administration is backing a 180-million-dollar measure, but both sides have expressed doubt a new bill will be passed this year.

The Republicans who voted to override the veto were Sens. Kenneth B. Keating and Jacob K. Javits of New York, John Sherman Cooper of Kentucky, Hugh Scott of Pennsylvania and Margaret Chase Smith of Maine.

The group is open to all persons interested in growing strawberries, members of the committee said.

Dear friends,

We will soon be celebrating Memorial Day...a day set aside for the living to honor their dead.

Auto liability insurance that can't be cancelled because of accidents

No responsible car owner would think of driving without the protection of insurance. Yet many good drivers worry about the possibility that their policies may be cancelled because of involvement with accidents which may not even be their fault.

But now, if your record as a good driver qualifies you for Allstate's precedent-breaking new plan, you no longer need be concerned about cancellation because of accidents. Your liability protection cannot be cancelled because of any accidents you may have.

In order to make sure that you and the great majority of car owners can continue to enjoy these features, Allstate reserves the right to withdraw or refuse this insurance under the following conditions, which we think you will recognize as being fair and proper:

If a policyholder or any member of his household is convicted or forfeits bail for: driving under the influence of liquor or drugs; hit-and-run driving; committing vehicular homicide; stealing a car; or driving while license is suspended or revoked.

Also if the insurance application contains false statements; or if the policyholder fails to assist the company in defending a claim against him.

These exceptions will not affect the guaranteed protection of law-abiding, honest people.

Also, we naturally cannot continue the coverage of anyone who does not pay his premium when it is due. Similarly the new coverage is not available to Assigned Risks. Also, these new features apply only to individually owned private passenger cars registered in Ohio.

You are guaranteed protection for periods up to 5 years . . .

After your Allstate liability insurance has been in effect for 90 days, you are not only protected against cancellation, but Allstate guarantees you up to 5 years of coverage. Just think: no matter how many accidents you have; no matter whose fault they are, you will continue to be protected by your Allstate liability insurance.

...and you get a Good Driver discount (on Allstate's already low rates)

Allstate's plan is probably the fairest yet devised to reward the careful motorist. It offers these advantages:

1. A discount for accident-free driving in addition to Allstate's already low rates.
2. No rate increase because of traffic violations.
3. No increase in rates for accidents proved to be no fault of yours.

Thus, the cost of your insurance depends upon your accident history, and, of course, the rates in effect at the time your premium is computed.

You're in good hands with Allstate, always. It has always been a matter of pride to Allstate, as well as good business, to serve its customers, and attract new ones by the continual development of new, improved features. The noncancellation plan, plus the guarantee of renewal and the discount for safe driving, is the latest innovation; Allstate's special rate reduction for compact cars is another recent example.

Allstate has also waged a constant battle to bring down the cost of auto insurance while increasing its benefits and advantages. In so doing, it has become one of the largest companies in the field, with a total of 5 million policyholders.

The twin goals of lower rates and greater value will continue to exemplify Allstate service. Find out as soon as possible about this modern, advanced type of auto insurance. See an Allstate Agent at the Allstate Sales Office in Sears, at a convenient Allstate Insurance Center, or in your home, if you prefer. May we help you?

SPECIAL NOTE TO PRESENT ALLSTATE CRUSADER POLICYHOLDERS

Allstate's noncancelation plan, plus our guarantee of renewal automatically applies (effective May 11, 1960) to all policyholders whose liability protection has been carried with Allstate for 90 days. The Good Driver discount plan will apply to you at your next renewal.

TV Quiz Show Seeks Topflight Liars

One of the increasingly lucrative professions in what Walter Lippmann calls our purposeless society is time wasting. The great merchant princes of time wasting are Goodson & Todman, who have expanded time wasting into a commercial empire.

One of the flowers of this great empire is "To Tell the Truth," which is the very model of a quiz show. That is: Empty-headed.

It requires nothing of the observer but the temporary exercise of his eyeballs. It's cheap. That means it can sell cigarettes and beauty products at a marvelously small cost per thousand.

And it occupies a splendid half hour of prime evening time on an important network, thus successfully preventing that half hour from being put to any important use, which is the highest aspiration of the time wasting profession.

AH. WHEN YOU think of 30 million pairs of eyeballs fixed on "To Tell the Truth" successfully getting through another half hour of eternity without a flicker of thought or a motion of the use of a muscle, you realize the superb achievement of the Messrs. Goodson & Todman in the fine 20th century profession of wasting other people's time and charging them money for it.

Quiz shows, in the opinion of some philosophers, have supplanted the chewing of gum as the great nirvana of the masses.

Now then, the chief ingredient of "To Tell the Truth" is lying. That is, three people are gathered together, two of them to tell lies about who and what they are, to a panel consisting of Kitty Carlisle, Polly Bergen, Tom Poston and Don Ameche.

THE LIEMEISTER for the show is a man named Willie Stein, associate producer of the show. Years ago, before Congress took a dim view of the matter, we had schlockmeisters who gathered loot for the giveaway shows. Now we have liemeisters who gather liars for "To Tell the Truth."

I don't know what posterity is going to say about this—that a grown man could earn his living looking for liars.

Just as Diogenes went through the streets looking for an honest man with a lantern, Stein goes out looking for liars, but whereas Diogenes couldn't find any honest men, Stein finds lots of liars.

There's a commentary on our civilization in there somewhere, but I haven't time to look for it. Goodson & Todman have murdered time as Macbeth murdered sleep.

ANYHOW, Mr. Stein has queried the other day about his curious profession, the procuring of liars. He's an unlikely guy to be in such a job—an unassuming gentleman with a raging honesty.

"I hate dishonesty, although I teach liars," he said. I was always taught to tell the truth, because sooner or later the lies would catch up with me.

"We keep a file on all the people who want to be on the show. I got a wonderful letter two years ago from a woman who said her husband was the most wonderful man in the world—intelligent, handsome and a former Olympic champion."

"Today for the first time I had the right spot for him, so I called her. She said: 'We're not married any more. You can call the bum if you want to. He's not very smart.'

Stein shook his head at the changeableness of women.

"WOMEN are better liars than men," he said. "We made a list of statistics and the women's average is 65 per cent and the men's is 50 per cent. Children are the best liars."

"Some people are so intent on playing the game they forget who they really are. Now we give each guy a card with his real name on it. Twice already, people at the end of the show couldn't think of their own names."

"I feel anyone can be taught to lie. I hate to say this, but I think the best educated people are the best liars. It's not only what they've been taught, but what they've accumulated."

"We had a man on the show who had to pretend to be president of the Republic of Panama. By show time he knew more about the Panama Canal than the president of Panama."

"THE WORST LIARS are men and women between 40 and 50 years of age. Their home life, their own reality, must be too important to them. They're the worst imposters."

Mr. Stein was asked how he felt about the state of television when so much creative energy went into creating such trivialities as "To Tell the Truth."

He said: "It's sad. It's hard to tell people just how much work and how much ideas you have to put in a panel show."

"I call my mother after each show and ask her how she liked it. She usually says, 'It was okay. It kills me when I think of the work I do just to make it okay.'"

SEATO Begin
New Study Of Reds' Threat

WASHINGTON (AP)—Top military advisers of the eight-nation Southeast Asia Treaty Organization begin a reassessment today of the Communist threat in Asia following collapse of the Paris summit meeting.

Assembled here for the 12th SEATO military advisers conference were three admirals, three generals and two air marshals with their staffs, representing the senior military leaders of Britain, France, Australia, New Zealand, the Philippines, Thailand, Pakistan and the United States.

The alliance is pledged to resist aggressive Communist expansion in the treaty area which includes Viet Nam, Laos and Cambodia under SEATO's mantle of protection.

The military men are charged with turning out a report for the guidance of foreign ministers of the eight countries who convene here May 31.

Many of the SEATO military planning staff consider the possibility of a Chinese Communist-directed move against Viet Nam and Laos to be heightened. Reports of reinforcements to Chinese Communist garrisons and air bases rimming the Chinese Nationalist islands of Quemoy and Matsu also are being weighed.

Slayer Of Two Nabbed After
17-Hour Hunt

COOPERSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—A former mental patient sought in the slayings of his wife and neighbor was captured late Tuesday as he sat propped against a tree trunk, wounded by his own shotgun.

A search party came across Lloyd E. Shuffstall, 51, in a wooded area about a mile from his home near this northwestern Pennsylvania hamlet.

The lower part of Shuffstall's chin was shot off. Weakened by loss of blood, he offered no resistance. His capture ended an intensive 17-hour manhunt.

State police Capt. John Chin quoted the unemployed foundry worker as saying he shot himself shortly after the slaying of his wife, Vera Rose, 47, mother of 10, and Harold DuPont, 43-year-old machinist.

DuPont was ambushed and shot on a dirt road a mile from the Shuffstall home. Mrs. Shuffstall was killed in the bedroom of her home. Both were shot with a 30-30 rifle.

State police said a son, Gerald, 24, told them DuPont had been "keeping company" with Mrs. Shuffstall some time ago.

Shuffstall, released from a mental institution only a week ago, was treated at a hospital and lodged in Venango County jail at Franklin.

LISBON — Cornelius E. Holt, 82, of Leetonia, was fined $5 and costs Tuesday by County Judge James L. MacDonald after he pleaded "no contest" but was found guilty of failing to halt for stop sign. He was cited by the State Highway Patrol.

Missionaries Entertain Club

Versatility marked the half-hour performance of the "Mormonaires," six missionaries of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, at the Rotary Club's luncheon meeting Tuesday in the Travelers Hotel.

On tour through the Eastern states, the young singers and musicians will present a free public concert tonight at 7:30 in the new LDS chapel at Hoppers Corners near Calcutta.

Proficient in singing, conducting, composing and arranging and as soloists on piano, trumpet and clarinet, they presented several popular selections mixed with religious hymns.

Their program included a well-received presentation of the pop number, "We'll Be Together Again," with a trumpet background. Another pop song presented was a clarinet solo of "Autumn Nocturne."

Members of the group are Elders Brent Van Kampen, Richard Geersten, Duane Huff, Donald Sedgwick, Robert Ogden and Newell Dayley. Prior to being called by the church, they attended college in the Western states. Upon completion of two years service in the Eastern states, they will resume studies in various colleges.

Dr. C. Marvin Kinsey served as program chairman. Charles Taylor, president, presided.

Ballot Deadline Nears In Merchants Election

Balloons must be returned to the Chamber of Commerce office by Friday in the annual election of officers of the East Liverpool Merchants Association, members were reminded today.

Balloting by mail has been under way since early May, when the slate of nominees was drawn up. After the deadline for voting, a tellers' committee will make the tabulation of returns in time to report at the next ELMA meeting June 7. Leslie Blumenthal is the incumbent president.

U.S. First Lied About U2 Plane, Ike Aide Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — A White House aide says the United States first lied about the U2 plane to give pilot Francis G. Powers a chance to escape.

Robert E. Merriam, deputy assistant to the President, Tuesday gave that version of the incident to the women's division of the Capitol Hill Club, a Republican group.

After the Soviet Union reported that a plane had crossed its borders, the National Aeronautics and Space Administration and the State Department said that a U2 plane on a weather reconnaissance flight was missing.

When the Soviets then announced the plane had been shot down and the pilot captured, the State Department admitted the plane had been on an espionage flight.

Merriam said Powers was under instructions to try to escape if he was forced down. He had elaborate equipment to do so, the White House aide said.

Merriam said the weather story was released to help Powers get out of the country if he were still alive.

Merriam did not say who had made the decision to make up the weather flight story.

Bailiff Humiliated When Locked In Jail

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Bailiff C.L. Ellison was quite humiliated over being locked in jail by mistake.

He and a court clerk were locking up some prisoners when the clerk slammed and locked the door with Ellison inside.

The bailiff shouted and pounded on the door for some 15 minutes before a passerby went for help.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: I used to read your column for jokes but now I find myself turning to you for help. I'm sure some of your readers will bust their sides laughing at my problem but it's not funny.

It all started when I used to needle my wife about how easy she had it with nothing to do but watching TV, reading, making a couple of meals, fixing the bed and playing with our two kids.

I must have overdone it because clean. I don't know how she did it.

I haven't read a book or seen TV in three weeks. After the kids are in bed I fall asleep in the chair.

My wife says she feels like she's on a vacation. I'm supposed to go back to work next week but she says she likes it the way it is. So, Ann Landers, what do I do now? —BEAT.

P.S.: How do you get bubble gum out of kids' hair?

Dear Beat: Get on your knees, Bob, and tell your ever-lovin' you've had it and you'll never open your mouth again.

Tell her if you can't find a suitable medal you'll dip yourself in bronze and make a public presentation. In short, eat a large portion of humble pie and go back to work.

P.S.: If cleaning fluid doesn't work, try the scissors.

house. Please tell me what to do.—DINTY.

Dear Dinty: Your mother is your boss. Do as she says but be respectful to the others.

Obvious Alternative

Dear Ann: I was married briefly to a 24-carat creep. His family is prominent in this city and the name is well known. I dislike being identified with him or his people. This is almost impossible because I am Mrs.—until I remarry, if ever do.

I find myself saying repeatedly, "I'm not married to Harvey any longer." This is clumsy and it makes me uncomfortable. What do you suggest I do to smooth over the embarrassment? — STUCK

WITH A RITZ NAME.

Dear Stuck: The alternative is so obvious. I'm surprised you didn't hit on it. Go to court and get your maiden name back.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Self-Inflicted Burns

Fatal To Youth, 20

CLEVELAND (AP)—Thomas J. Scott, 20, of Cleveland, died Tuesday night of burns received Monday when he set fire to himself in an automobile. Police said Scott ignited his turpentine-soaked clothes because he could not get a full-time job.

Scott turned himself into a human torch while driving his car. He was thrown from the vehicle in a collision and another man beat out the flames.

Youngstown Pastor Dies

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—The Rev. Simeon S. Booker, 78, pastor of Third Baptist Church and a Negro leader here for many years, died of cancer Tuesday. Dr. Booker had been honored for civic leadership and was president of the Interdenominational Ministerial Fellowship.

There's a lot of friction in our states' rights.

Bryant has to face Republican nominee George Petersen of Fort Lauderdale in November, but Democratic nomination has been tantamount to election in Florida.

Selection of Bryant means the state is headed toward a more conservative form of government during the next four years. Bryant pledged no new taxes and trimming of 25 million dollars a year from the state's spending program.

Bryant, a militant advocate of states' rights, declared Collins was out of step with Floridians on the racial issue. He said Florida needed a governor who had training, experience and the mind to combat efforts to integrate schools, lunch counters and beaches.

While promising to preserve segregation by all "honorable, legal and constitutional means," Bryant said he would never close the public schools.

Carlton, who ran with Collins' active support, conceded defeat shortly before 10 p.m.

Collins said at Tallahassee he was disappointed by the defeat of Carlton but he pledged his full cooperation to Bryant.

Yes, middle age has its compensations. So says author W. Somerset Maugham, who added: "Youth is bound hand and foot with the shackles of public opinion. Middle age enjoys freedom."

Long Weekend Ahead! Stock Up...

Oh, but we DO have just the ideal foods for a festive Memorial Day holiday weekend! Tempting quality! Exciting varieties! Good values! And the rest is up to you...with this suggestion:

Set your table under the sky for at least one holiday meal! And whether you cook it over charcoal or in the kitchen, give your meat the "gourmet" touch by thumbing through your cook book (before you shop) for tantalizing recipes. Also don't stint on the "fixin's" like pickles, olives, relishes, jams or jellies, lemonade, potato chips, etc. And if you're doing "fancy" hamburgs or hot dogs, don't forget to toast the fresh buns. Your family will tell you it's "the best food" they've ever had!

Bank Out Of Business, But He Pays His Debt

HAXTUN, Colo. (AP) — A 79-year-old man wrote the Farmers' State Bank asking if he could still pay off a $300 note he'd signed before he left Haxtun in the 1920s.

There was no hitch: the bank went out of business 37 years ago. Not even the State Banking Commission had the files on the bank. The money was turned over to the Haxtun Community Hospital.

Peach Season To Make Him Busier Than Ever

HOLLYWOOD, Fla. (AP) — With the coming of the peach season, Laurie Bennett figures to be busier than ever with his hobby.

Bennett carves trinkets out of peach pits. He makes rings, crosses, earrings and Stars of David, which he distributes to hospitals to help cheer up the patients.

Bennett ran out of pits last fall and has been searching for supplies ever since. He found some at a factory in Georgia, but they were unsatisfactory for carving because the grain wasn't right.

Then he wrote to a canning factory in Sanger, Calif., and received a sample that was just what he wanted. The factory offered to ship him all the pits he wanted, at $10 a ton plus freight.

Bennett thinks a supply might be available close to home, and for less.

Ship To Set Record

ASHTABULA, Ohio (AP) — A record for a single delivery by a Great Lakes ship will be set when the steamer Murray Bay docks here late today with 24,180 gross tons of iron ore. The current record is 23,291 tons delivered to Cleveland by the steamer Meinhek Lake.

Haircut To Be $2

CLEVELAND (AP) — The price of a haircut in Greater Cleveland will be 2 starting next Wednesday, according to a contract approved Tuesday night by the Employers Guild and Barbers Union Local 129. Children's haircuts will go up from $1.50 to $1.75, except on Saturdays and eve of holidays, when the price will be $2.

130 Attend County Panel Event On Problems Of Aged

About 130 attended the Columbian County Conference on Aging at Lisbon Tuesday afternoon when various problems and aspects of the aged citizen were aired in speakers' talks and a panel discussion.

Some 100 attended a preliminary luncheon at the American Legion home, followed by the meeting. The event was part of an Ohio program to provide county level preparation for a statewide meeting at Columbus in September.

A national Whitehouse Conference is slated in January 1961. Mrs. J. Donald Thompson is county chairwoman.

Cornell Monda of Lisbon was in charge of the program, on the theme, "Aging with a Future. Every Citizen's Concern." Paul Blair, assistant superintendent of schools, was panel moderator.

Unintentional Lesson Received In Shoplifting

CONWAY, Ark. — Mrs. Howard Lawrence got an unintentional lesson in shoplifting.

While shopping, she glanced down to discover a nightgown folded across her arm. She had looked at gowns in several stores, she said, but hadn't bought one "and I had no idea where the one on my arm came from."

Red-faced, she finally found the store that was missing the gown.

Blind Student, 30, Learns Through Ears'

CHICAGO (AP) — Although he is blind, the future looks bright for Fred Moeckel of Naugatuck, Conn.

A graduate of the University of Hartford, Moeckel hopes to get his Master's degree in June. He is going to write a narration for a film strip on 16 Old People's Homes, Children's Homes, Sailor's Homes and Hospitals for the Evangelical Covenant Church of America.

Moeckel, 30, a diabetic for 21 years, now is totally blind from side effects of the disease. He was invited to write the script. "You'd be surprised what you can learn through your ears," he said.

Local Woman Becomes Director At BPW Sessions

Mrs. Ethel Lynn Wambaugh of Ohio Ave. was installed as director of District 8 during the 40th annual convention of the Ohio Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs Friday through Sunday at the Biltmore Hotel in Dayton. The local club was represented by nine delegates.

Mrs. Wambaugh organized the East Liverpool BPW in May 1939 and served 2 years as charter president. Elected again in 1957, she held the post for another 2 years, presiding at the club's 20th anniversary commemoration last year. She was presented with an honorary life membership, the only local member thus far to have received the honor.

She has been a continuing member of the club's Executive Board since its inception, serving as chairman of various standing committees, including public affairs, membership, finance, career advancement, program co-ordination and public relations, during which she procured several national and state BPW Federation publicity awards for the club.

In 1947, as chairman of the club's project committee, she was responsible for the conception, planning and launching of the "Child Health Clinic," now in its 13th year of providing free medical care for pre-school age children. In 1948, Mrs. May Hart was named permanent chairman of the clinic.

With Mrs. Wambaugh's installation as director, she becomes a member of the State Board of Directors for the second time, having served as state public relations chairman.

Cubs in the district under her jurisdiction include Columbiania,

The state legislative platform adopted for the coming year includes opposition to discrimination against women in the exercise of their rights and responsibilities as citizens; the support of improvement of operations, methods and processes of the civil service system and its extension and the support of legislation to promote highway safety and public health and welfare.

At the awards breakfast Sunday, Mrs. Helen Moore, chairman, accepted the award the local club received for a 10 per cent increase in membership.

The 1960-61 convention will be held in Toledo.

Father, 27, Charged

In Infant Son's Death

CLEVELAND (AP)—Robert L. Koslasky, 27, of East Cleveland, was charged Tuesday with manslaughter in the death of one of his infant twin sons. The month-old boy, Mathew, died Sunday. An autopsy showed brain injuries caused his death.

The accused man said the child's head accidentally struck the headboard of a bed as Koslasky was handing the boy to Mrs. Koslasky. Police said Mrs. Koslasky told them, when questioned, that her husband had dashed the son against the headboard in anger because the child had been crying.

Air Force Gun Salute Rendered Gen. Kelly

EGLIN AIR FORCE BASE, Fla. (AP)—The Air Force version of a 13-gun salute was rendered Maj. Gen. Joe W. Kelly as he left here Tuesday for reassignment to Scott AFB, Ill.

During the farewell ceremony, 13 supersonic jets cut in their afterburners as they flew by the reviewing stand, thus simulating the 13-gun salute usually given for a general.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Reducer Reports Typical Daily Routine

To live happily slim ever after is the fervent hope of every dieter. The busy homemaker in today's story has devised a slimming way of life which fits her particular routine. She writes:

"In today's paper a reader asked what successful dieters eat to reduce and keep their weight controlled. In my last letter to you I was a size 16½ and now I am a happy 14½. Remember I told you about the penny scales tickets and how satisfying it is to keep the tickets for the record? At the start of my diet plan, I weighed 203 and a size 24½ was a tight fit.

"About 3:30 in the afternoon I have an energy pick-up, either cocoa made with skim milk or a glass of buttermilk and either toast and diet-jelly or a piece of fruit. I put the diet-jelly on lightly toasted bread and slip it under the broiler for a second. . . it's delicious.

"For dinner I eat lean meat, two vegetables, and low calorie fruit, pudding, or diet jello. I have another snack at bedtime, about the same as the mid-afternoon one.

"On this eating plan I never suffer hunger pangs and I have gone from a tight 24½ to a nice 14½.

"Then I go upstairs, make beds, clean bathrooms, dust and gather laundry. When this is done, I take some mild exercise — and finish with a shower.

"Now I am ready for brunch.

"WHEN THE LAST member of the family leaves at 8:20, I make a two-cup pot of coffee just for me. I take this black and have it in the living room while I read the paper. I really enjoy myself for a good half hour.

"Then I go upstairs, make beds, clean bathrooms, dust and gather laundry. When this is done, I take some mild exercise — and finish with a shower.

"Now I am ready for brunch.

"I THINK THAT fixing a pretty tray and eating in the living room while watching TV is a pleasant break. No one needs more food than this and I have had a steady meal for a long time now.

Pirates Fail To Master Southpaw In 4-2 Defeat; Giants Blank Phillies, 4-0

By ED WILKS
Associated Press Sports Writer
You might call it a left-handed swipe at Pittsburgh, but it's been southpaw pitching that has dumped the Pirates out of the National League lead.

They dropped a 4-2 decision to Los Angeles and Johnny Podres Tuesday night and slipped eight percentage points behind San Francisco. The Giants got back on top with a 4-0 victory at Philadelphia behind the four-hit pitching of Sam Jones, who gained his first road success of the season.

It was the second straight defeat for the Pirates and their third in four games. All three losses were to left-handers—Podres and Dodger teammate Sandy Koufax, who blanked the Bucs on one hit Monday, and the Giants' Johnny Antonelli.

Fact is, southpaws have been responsible for Pittsburgh's last four defeats and five of their six losses in two weeks.

The other two NL games—Milwaukee at St. Louis and Chicago at Cincinnati—were rained out.

In the American League, Baltimore regained first place from Chicago by beating the White Sox 6-1 in the opener of a two-game series. The Sox fell to third behind the Cleveland Indians, who whipped Washington 7-2. Detroit rapped New York 4-0 on the four-hit pitching of Don Mossi. Kansas City tagged Boston with a 10th straight defeat, 6-2.

The Dodgers got two runs in the second inning on Gil Hodges' home off losing left-hander Joe Gibbon (3-2), then scored the clincher in a two-run fifth. A single by Jim Gilliam, Charlie Neal's sacrifice bunt, which led to Gibbon's run-scoring error, and a sacrifice fly by rookie Frank Howard got the final two home.

Young Airman To Face British Golfing Star

By JOHN FARROW
Associated Press Sports Writer
PORTRUSH, Northern Ireland (AP)—Ralph Morrow, a 25-year-old American airman who started caddying at the age of seven, went into the third round of the British Amateur golf championship today facing the biggest test of his golfing life.

The shy Oklahoma City player meets former champion Reid Jack, a member of the British Walker Cup squad. Morrow faces the toughest match of any of the six American survivors out of the originally entry of 26.

Morrow is stationed at an American Air Force base in Scotland. Two other American servicemen are in the third round.

One of them, Maj. Hiram Snowden of Savannah, Ga., found himself in the last 64 without playing a hole. Both his first and second round opponent scratched. He plays Irishman John Duncan.

Bowersock's One-Hitter Highlights Pony Opener

A one-hitter by Dave Bowersock opened the 1960 Pony League season with a rush Tuesday night when Littens' picked up a 9-1 victory over Burbicks at Dohler Field.

Reaching mid-season form on opening day, Bowersock fanned 10 Burbick batters while walking four.

He was backed up by a solid 10-hit attack which showed Littens' scoring four times in the first inning and five more in the sixth.

Null, Burbick's rightfielder, spoiled Bowersock's no-hitter with a double.

Tom Kraft banged out three doubles to pace Littens' attack while Bowersock helped his own cause with a double and single.

Burns was the losing pitcher but struck out seven in going the distance.

Orioles Thump Chisox, 6-1, To Regain First Place In AL

Mossi Blanks Yankees, 4-0,
On Four-Hitter

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer
The Baltimore Orioles, it appears, no longer are pigeons for the other American League clubs.

The Birds, backing southpaw rookie Steve Barber with a five-run fourth-inning, rode back into first place with a 6-1 victory at Chicago Tuesday night, dropping the White Sox to third with their third straight defeat in the opener of a two-game series.

It was the third consecutive victory for the Orioles. They now have a 3-1 season edge over the defending champions and a half-game lead over both Cleveland and the White Sox.

Cleveland moved into second place, five percentage points ahead of Chicago, with a 7-2 victory over Washington. Detroit closed within one game of fourth-place New York as Don Mossi whipped the Yankees 4-0 with a four-hitter. Kansas City sent Boston to a 10th straight defeat, 6-2.

In the National League, San Francisco regained first place by beating Philadelphia 4-0 on a four-hitter by Sam Jones. Pittsburgh slipped eight percentage points behind the Giants with a 4-2 loss to Los Angeles. Milwaukee at St. Louis and Chicago at Cincinnati were rained out.

The Orioles beat southpaw Herb Score (1-3) with two out in the fourth inning. Baltimore collected 13 walks off four White Sox pitchers. Score gave up seven of them, two in the five-run outburst.

Barber, 21, won his third in a row with a seven-hitter.

Johnny Romano drove in three runs for Cleveland, two with a clinching, seventh-inning homer. The Indians then counted four in the eighth. Bubba Phillips drove in two with a single. Jim (Mudcat) Grant, now 12-0 lifetime against the Senators, won it with a four-hitter for a 2-1 record. Jim Lemon hit a two-run homer in the ninth, his 10th, tops in the majors. Chuck Stobbs (1-1) lost it.

The Tigers, finally back to .500 after that 10-game losing streak, won their third in a row with a first-inning run on a walk, a wild pitch and Al Kaline's two-out single off loser Bill Short (2-3). Charlie Maxwell's second home run in two games got the other three home in the fifth. Mossi, now 2-3, had a two-hitter until the ninth, when he got Roger Maris on a grounder after two-out singles by Bill Skowron and Elston Howard.

Marv Throneberry hit a home run, triple and double for the A's, scoring three runs and driving in three. His two-run double decided it in the fourth off Dave Hillman, who lost his first AL decision. Bud Daley (4-2) won his third in a row.

Warren Boxer Named Alternate For Olympics

The boxers were chosen by Olympic boxing coach Julie Menendez of San Jose State College.

100 At Banquet Honoring Stanton Local Athletes

Wampum's L. Butler Hennon, coach of the defending Pennsylvania Class B basketball champions, had an audience of over 100 literally "rollin' in the aisles" at an all-sports banquet of Stanton Local High School in Irondequoit Tuesday night.

The jovial Hennon, always a topic of conversation whenever coaching techniques are mentioned, proved as good a storyteller as his gaudy record which includes piloting Wampum High to three state crowns and 82 straight victories at one time in the Section 20 WPIAL ranks.

His humorous address highlighted activities which found the school and fans honoring Stanton's 10th ranked basketball team and football players, cheerleaders and coaches.

Between relating side-splitting experiences of his long tenure as the coach, the reserves posted a 14-4 mark and won 11 straight during one stretch of the season. Sims' grididers were 4-4 for the year.

Douglas awarded letters to seven varsity basketball players, including Earl Allen, William Chetock, Kent Cline, Robert Mills, Dorman Patterson and Stanley Wickham, sophomores. Football managers Craig Fagan and Douglas Warden received awards.

Reserve awards went to Keith

Burgett, Ernest Leedy and Lutton, juniors, and Charles Allen, James Leedy, Curtis Rose and Stanley Wickham, sophomores. James Sanders and Dave Davis, managers, also received awards.

In football, guard Lonnie Fraley, the school's only four letterman, headed the list of award winners. Sims' other senior letter winners were Earl Allen, William Chetock, Douglas Logan, John Pilotti, Frank Pisarsky and James Sanders.

Other awards went to Keith Burgett, David Davis and Ernest Leedy, juniors, and Charles Allen, Thomas Carpenter, Ben Chetock, Kent Cline, Robert Mills, Dorman Patterson and Stanley Wickham, sophomores. Football managers Craig Fagan and Douglas Warden received awards.

Miss Lydia Sinkora presented cheerleading awards to Suzanne Russell, Judy Boyd, Marcia Russell and Kay Stewart.

Principal Harry Swartzlander presented a plaque engraved to "Stanton's No. 1 sports fan" to Dr. William S. Banfield, president of the Board of Education. Pilotti and Chetock presented gifts to the two coaches.

Supt. C. P. Henderson made the introductions. The invocation was given by James Salsiger, faculty member. Dinner was served by students of the Home Economics Department.

Late Babe Ruth Hit Last HR 25 Years Ago Today

CHICAGO (AP) — Babe Ruth hit his 714th—and last—home run a quarter of a century ago today.

Guy Bush still can hear it whistling out of Pittsburgh's Forbes Field. He threw Babe his last homer.

"I remember it all just like it was yesterday," said Bush, a wiry 54-year-old Chicago sporting goods salesman who was a 20-game winner for the Chicago Cubs in 1933.

"The Bambino (he was with the Boston Braves then) worked me for a 3 and 1 count. We had orders not to throw him the same pitch twice in succession. My catcher, Tommy Padden, called for a fast ball. I had just thrown a screw ball."

"The fast one was about knee high. As soon as Babe swung, I knew it was gone. It sailed over the right field roof. Never saw a ball hit that hard before or since."

Eight days later the Bambino called it quits after terrorizing pitchers for 22 years.

Hartack Rides Celtic Ash In Jersey Derby

CAMDEN, N.J. (AP) — Jockey Bill Hartack will ride Celtic Ash, a colt he calls "sound horse who is coming up fast," in the $100,000 Jersey Derby at Garden State Park Memorial Day.

The disclosure that Hartack, who rode Venetian Way to victory in The Kentucky Derby, would ride Celtic Ash came as something of a surprise Tuesday.

The jockey had worked out on Reginald N. Webster's Count Amber before the announcement that he, trainer Tom Barry and Hartack's agent, Howard Pestano, had agreed he would ride Celtic Ash.

Barry told Hartack if he liked the horse in the Jersey Derby, he was welcome to ride in the Belmont. Celtic Ash is owned by Josephine O'Connell's Green Dunes Stables.

Trainer Vic Sovinski was shopping for a new rider for Venetian Way. Venetian Way, Billy Ache, Tompion and Bourbon Prince, four of the first five Kentucky Derby finishers, are slated to run in the Jersey Derby.

Sovinski had expressed displeasure over the way Hartack handled Venetian Way in the Preakness, in which he finished fifth as Celtic Ash was third in the Preakness.

Ring Honors Bocerra As Top Fighter

NEW YORK (AP) — Bantamweight champion Jose Bocerra's victory over Japan's Kenji Yonemura in a title defense in Tokyo has earned him "fighter of the month" honors from Ring magazine.

The Mexican won a split decision over Yonemura Monday. Yonemura was listed as the No. 3 contender in the latest Ring ratings, released today. Listed ahead of him are France's Alphonse Halimi, the former champion, and Brazil's Edson Kider.

In the biggest upset of the past month, Hank Casey of Richmond, Calif., whipped Henry Hank of Detroit, and gained a place in the middleweight top ten. Casey was moved into the No. 9 spot, replacing inactive Carmen Basilio. Hank dropped from fourth to fifth.

Former welterweight champion Virgil Atkins of St. Louis regained a ranking on the strength of his victory over Charley Scott, of Philadelphia. Atkins was given the ninth spot and Scott was demoted from sixth to eighth.

Lightweight Paolo Rosi, the Italian-born New Yorker, was dropped from second to sixth among the 135-pounders for his loss to Eddie Perkins of Chicago. Perkins was ranked ninth. Dave Charnley of England, Len Matthews of Philadelphia, Battling Torres of Mexico, and Carlos Hernandez of Venezuela, each moved up one position—to second, third, fourth and fifth, respectively.

Heavyweight Alex Miteff of Argentina, outpointed by Eddie Machen, of Portland, Ore., was dropped from sixth to seventh place.

Entries Close On Friday For Waterford's Feature

"We are also attracting many diners in the grand stand and several flights of stairs to the mezzanine.

"Racing patrons will also find Waterford Park even more beautiful than ever, and vastly improved in many ways. We have doubled the clubhouse outdoor dining facilities, and tripled the mezzanine floor, while also adding a decorative and convenient garden.

"The Memorial feature is for three-year-olds and upward over a distance of a mile and a sixteenth, and representatives of six racing areas are expected to match strides.

From Canada is coming the R. Gian twosome of Moony and Handshake, while Frank Baumans Salt Lick, R. L. McFarland's Giorgione and W. Lape's Winged Way are hopefuls from Beulah Park.

Snoozie, winner of the Ascot Silver Cup at Ascot Park last Saturday, is being nominated from that track, while the K & L Stable's Family Album is due to make its seasonal debut after having trained at Wheeling.</p

Ohio To Crown Spring Champs This Weekend

By FRITZ HOWELL
Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's high school track-field championships Friday and Saturday should be twice as sensational as any of the previous 50 scholastic cinder carnivals.

Admission price for fans has been boosted from 50 cents to one dollar.

But there will be no charge for customers wishing to view the 33rd baseball tournament, the 34th golf championship play, or the 41st tennis meet. The four-ply spring program is scattered all over Ohio State University's athletic plant.

The 51st track-field schedule calls for 41 events in both Class A and Class AA, with the hot-shots from the starting field of 750 schools competing. Springfield and defending champion Cleveland and Glenville are favored to fight it out for the Class AA crown, but Class A figures as a toss-up.

Each Class AA event has at least 37 qualifiers as the result of district eliminations, and 26 will be on hand for each Class A competition. Many more are eligible for in one district meet eight boys tied for third in the high jump and all get a spot in the state finals.

Cincinnati Elder is back for defense in its Class AA baseball crown, but the rest of the field is qualified, and Euclid and Lima have qualified, and Massillon and Bridgeport were in a fight for the fourth berth.

Class A has Liberty Union, Newton Falls, Braceville and Convoy Union in the fold, with the Southwestern District qualifier still to be heard from.

Finals in the Class A shot put, pole vault and broad jump, and the Class AA discus, are scheduled Friday afternoon, along with preliminaries in several track events in both classes.

The golf, tennis and baseball first rounds are scheduled Friday afternoon, with all finals Saturday.

Moore Given Nod In Return Match Tonight

By JERRY LISKA

Associated Press Sports Writer
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP)—Light heavyweight champion Archie Moore, looking as though he trained for a fat man's picnic race, makes his first start in nine months tonight against Germany's Willi Besmanoff in a 10-round heavyweight match.

The nationally televised match 10 p.m. (EDT ABC-TV) is a reply of a May 2, 1958 bout in which Moore scored a split decision over Besmanoff in Louisville, Ky.

Moore is called a 2½ to 1 favorite even though he'll come into the ring about 200 pounds, 25 over the 175 limit at which he reigns world champion.

Archie, supposedly approaching 46, may even weigh a few pounds more than the sharply trained Besmanoff, who fights out of Milwaukee. Certainly, he has the bulge in age, almost 20 years over the 27-year-old Besmanoff.

This will be a $25,000 payday for Moore in his only start between his last outing, a three-round knockout of Yvon Durelle last Aug. 12, and his next scheduled title defense, against Germany's Erich Schoppner, in July.

Moore has a $25,000 guarantee or 35 per cent of the net, including TV, from the show in the Coliseum which is expected to draw 8,000 and a possible $60,000 gross. Besmanoff has a $6,000 guarantee.

The venerable Moore has a 17-24-6 ring record, against 41-18-7 for Besmanoff.

Ohio Trapshoot Slated June 8-12

FINDLAY, Ohio (AP)—The 74th Ohio Trapshooting Championship tournament is scheduled June 8-12 at the Fisher Bros. Shooting Park here.

The Buckeye marksmen, augmented by hot-shots from neighboring states, will go for a neat prize list which includes $5,175 in added money.

The program has been changed from that which has been in vogue for years in the state scattergun meet. Preliminary tuneups are slated June 8, followed by the preliminary handicap and doubles championships the next day, the 16-yard championship the next, and the handicap championship the closing day.

Four traps have been added to the Fisher field, making a dozen available for tournament events and two for practice.

Killed By Truck

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Steven Blattner, 22 months, was killed Tuesday when run over by an ice cream truck near his home.

Frick And Shea In New Squabble

By JOE REICHLER

Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK (AP)—Commissioner Ford Frick and Bill Shea, the outspoken founder of the Continental League, were in a new squabble today over the Kefauver bill designed to place certain aspects of baseball under the antitrust laws.

Shea Tuesday recommended to Senator Estes Kefauver's subcommittee to substitute in his bill before Congress an unrestricted player draft for a clause that would limit the control to 100 players by each major league.

In Washington, the subcommittee, apparently deadlocked over terms, sent the bill to the Senate Judiciary Committee without recommendation. It included a proposed amendment calling for an unrestricted draft.

In a recent poll, it was determined that the major league clubs control an average of 170 players each.

Shea contended that Frick and George Trautman, president of the minor leagues, had testified in Washington last week that an unrestricted draft would be acceptable to them.

Frick vehemently denied this.

"I said I didn't want either the player control clause or the unrestricted draft," he said. "I told the committee I was against any sort of legislation by the government."

"I was asked which one I would prefer, if baseball had to have one or the other. I said neither would be acceptable but we probably could live better with the unrestricted draft. That would be the lesser of two evils."

An Anderson Blvd. woman, struck by a falling ladder, was admitted Tuesday night to City Hospital. Nine youngsters and adults were treated and released yesterday after separate mishaps.

Mrs. Shirley Kinsey, 23, of Anderson Blvd., is in "fairly good" condition today with bruises of the head received when struck by the ladder at home. She was admitted at 11:30 p.m.

Chester Car Fan, Family Travel In 1923 Model T

Who needs one of new compact cars when a 37-year-old production of Henry Ford chugs along at better than 20 miles to the gallon?

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Martin Jr., 540 Louisiana Ave., Chester, recorded that gas consumption figure when they made a 500-mile weekend round-trip to Charleston in a 1923 Model T touring car taking along their daughter, Linda, 3, and their son, John 16 months.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin went to Charleston for the spring meet of the West Virginia Region Antique Auto Club, which drew 75 entries from 5 states. They made the trip without incident at a steady 35 miles an hour, using about 24 gallons of gas.

The Martins took two awards—a second prize for traveling the greatest distance and a third prize in the classification of the antiques.

An antique car bug, Martin expects to make many more trips this summer to auto shows. He and his father worked about three years restoring the Model T to showroom condition.

Traveling in a Model T is quite an experience, because the ancient car turns more heads than the latest luxury model out of Detroit, the Martins pointed out. They travel in modern clothes, but when the old car is part of a parade of antiques the whole family gets into period costumes.

Barone suffered back and leg injuries and is in "fair" condition today in the Weirton General Hospital. The mishap occurred at 2:40 a.m., deputies said.

Concern Gets New Contract For Street Oil

The Allied Oil Co. was awarded a contract by the Board of Control Tuesday afternoon to continue to supply road oil at 9.75 cents a gallon for the traditional city program of oiling unsurfaced streets at property-owner's expense.

Allied's bid was the lone offer received by Mayor Bert H. Goodballe and Safety-Service Director Lee Copenhagen, who comprise the board. The bid was submitted by the concern's Cleveland office, specifying delivery into the city's tank-type distributor at the supplier's river terminal in Wellsville.

The city estimated its requirements at 40,000 gallons, for delivery as required. Allied now holds a contract at the same price. At the same time, the board took under advisement a series of three bids on a year's requirements of gasoline and motor oil for vehicles in the street, incinerator, police and fire departments.

Neighborhood groups seeking information on the oiling program may telephone Mrs. Marian Gerace, receptionist in the mayor's office, furnishing the name of the street and the points between which it will be treated.

The city engineer's office then makes measurements of the stretch and furnishes the estimated cost, based on the number of square yards. A gallon of oil will cover three square yards.

When the cost of the oil has been paid in to the city, the material is applied by the city's equipment without further charge. To simplify the arithmetic, the city bases the charge on 10 cents a gallon to avoid the fractional quarter of a cent.

Neighborhood groups generally appoint one or two spokesmen to contact City Hall about the oiling, then collect the money from their fellow property-owners and make the payment to the city.

The mayor and director took under advisement bids received at the same time on 15,000 gallons of gasoline, 500 gallons of motor oil, 1,000 gallons of diesel fuel and 200 gallons of hydraulic oil. Let on a yearly basis, the current contract is held by Standard Oil Co. It runs to July 1.

Standard offered two grades of gasoline at "posted dealer prices at the time of delivery," including state tax, but excluding federal tax.

It said current prices on this basis are 21.6 cents a gallon for regular gas and 25.1 for high test. It offered 2 grades of diesel fuel at 14.7 cents and 15.2 cents a gallon, exclusive of all taxes.

Standard offered regular motor oil at 60 cents a gallon in bulk and 75 cents a gallon in quart cans. Its price on high detergent oil was 64 cents a gallon in bulk and 79 cents a gallon in quart cans. It bid 42 cents a gallon on hydraulic oil.

Midway Oil Co. offered regular Gulf gasoline at 27.1 cents a gallon, less 4 cents federal tax. It did not bid on high test. It offered two grades of motor oil at 78 and 71 cents a gallon, respectively. Each price would be subject to a 4-cent deduction for purchase of 5 barrels or more at a time and another 6-cent deduction for federal tax.

It offered hydraulic oil at 69 cents a gallon and diesel fuel at 14.7 cents a gallon.

Genuine Parts Co. of W. 6th St., bidding on part of the requirements, offered motor oil at 1.07 a gallon in bulk and 1.15 a gallon in quart cans.

Won't Join Move To Stop Kennedy, Humphrey Says

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey, Minnesota, said today he will have no part in any stop-Kennedy move at the Democratic presidential nominating convention.

Nevertheless, Humphrey said he intends to hold on to a bloc of around 100 votes on the first ballot and decide thereafter which candidate to support.

Despite his withdrawal from the presidential contest after his defeat in the West Virginia primary by Sen. John F. Kennedy, Massachusetts, Humphrey said he had been assured by all of the delegations previously supporting him that they would cast their ballots for him on the first round.

Despite the fact that they exchanged some sharp criticisms of each other in the West Virginia primary, Humphrey said "I bear no ill will toward Sen. Kennedy." "If he is the nominee, I can support him wholeheartedly," Humphrey added.

Humphrey's holdout, however, promised to make it more difficult for Kennedy to achieve the nomination on the first ballot.

House Takes Up Federal Aid For Erecting Schools

WASHINGTON (AP) — For the third time in five years the House takes up today a bill to provide federal aid for school construction. This time its sponsors are hopeful they can push it through.

They missed by 30 votes in 1956 and by only five in 1957.

There is widespread agreement in Congress that the nationwide classroom shortage calls for some kind of federal action, but opinions differ sharply on what should be done.

The bill reaching the floor today represents a broad compromise, scaled down considerably from a Senate-passed bill, going much farther than the administration bill and containing features designed to win support from both extremes.

It would authorize $75 million dollars a year, to be given out at the rate of $25 million a year for three years. The first year's money would be an outright grant. After that the states would have to match federal funds. The money could be used only to build schools.

Bringing Up A Family

BY GARRY C. MEYERS

Five Ways To Prevent Overweight

Yesterday we considered the growing number of overweight children and their likelihood of becoming overweight adults. We observed some reasons for the increasing obesity in children — decreasing opportunities and stimulation for normal exercise, increased consumption of fattening foods, especially sweets. We ended yesterday's column with this: "It seems to me that the prevailing theory and practice of excessive permissiveness with young children is the biggest single contribution to obesity."

3. CULTIVATE IN THE TOT A GOOD APPETITE FOR WHOLESALE FOODS by pushing them into him or commanding him to eat them, but by withholding less wholesome foods, assuming he will eat when he is hungry.

LIMIT ALL SWEETS, INCLUDING SWEETENED LIQUIDS, TO THE END OF THE MEAL. Between meals limit foods to fruit juices and fruits or pure milk.

4. DURING EARLY SCHOOL AGE, AND LATER IF POSSIBLE, LIMIT THE AMOUNT OF SWEETS, FATS AND CARBOHYDRATES (LIKE GRAVY AND POTATOES) THAT HE MAY HAVE AT MEALTIME, AND THE USUAL TYPE OF FATTENING SNACKS BETWEEN MEALS AT HOME.

Having educated him in the use of a budgeted allowance, you can also limit his purchase of sweets between meals. Better not often have cakes, cookies, and other sweets around the house that he can get at when he wishes.

ALL ADULTS OF COURSE, SHOULD CONFORM TO A LIKE PROGRAM. Many mothers would do well to provide fruits for dessert, instead of rich pastries.

5. DON'T TALK OR ARGUE. BE DECISIVE, EVEN SOMETIMES DICTATORIAL, IF NECESSARY.

You and I know some mothers who have pursued a program like the foregoing. We have observed the gratitude expressed by their healthy-bodied children when almost grown up.

My bulletin "Eating Problems: Their Prevention and Correction" may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Having educated him in the use of a budgeted allowance, you can also limit his purchase of sweets between meals. Better not often have cakes, cookies, and other sweets around the house that he can get at when he wishes.

Johnson, Cooper Win Kentucky Bid For U.S. Senate

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP) — Former Democratic Gov. Keen Johnson and Republican Sen. John Sherman Cooper raised party standards today as Kentucky's nominees for a six-year term in the U.S. Senate.

Each easily won nomination in Tuesday's primary. The vote was extremely light.

The administration-backed Johnson swept to victory over Lexington attorney John Y. Brown with most returns counted. Brown refused to concede.

He was supported by former Gov. A. B. Chandler.

Cooper, closing out a four-year unexpired term, had an even easier time winning over Thurman J. Hamlin of London.

All of Kentucky's eight congressmen won renomination. Three without opposition are assured of reelection in November.

The three are Democratic Reps. Frank Stubblefield, 52 of Murray; William H. Natcher, 50, of Bowling Green, and Frank Chaff, 51, of Lebanon, who will be serving his ninth term.

New Road Freight Terminal Ready

The CCC Highway, Inc., trucking concern, which serves East Liverpool district industries, potteries and other businesses, will move into a new $500,000 terminal near Greentown Saturday.

Gene Bianchi, branch manager, and Frank Boyd, representative, said the new terminal on Route 8 about 2½ miles south of Greentown is located on an 11-acre site, and incorporates the latest ideas in motor freight facilities.

It will have 26 loading doors on one side and another 26 in an enclosed area on the other side. Also included are a maintenance shop, offices of 2,500 square feet, full basement with drivers' locker room and a 60-foot wide dock platform.

Both the Akron and Canton terminals will occupy the new facility.

Some 35 truck tractors, 20 trucks and 70 semi-trailers handle freight in the Akron-Canton area, linking with East Liverpool.

Veterans Reminded On GI School Windup

A. G. Bille, contact representative for the VA office at Steubenville, issued a reminder today on the Korea veterans' schooling under the GI Bill that there is a definite individual deadline for completing training.

The law says you cannot get any GI training that goes beyond eight years from the date of discharge from the armed forces. But for some, the windup may come in less than eight years for this reason:

The entire GI program comes to a final end in January 1965, as does the entire GI program for Korea veterans. So figure your own program. Will you be able to finish your training before the windup? You may want to take extra courses or go to summer school. It will pay to plan things carefully. Check with your school or you can get complete information from the Veterans Administration Office, 227 N. 5th St., Steubenville.
